Special Services

Special services were held at St. Augustine's Episcopal church on Monday evening, when nine baptisms were performed by the rector, Rev. Thos. Shea. Those baptised were Mr and Mrs John Green and two children, three children of Mr and Mrs C. Olver, an infant daughter of Mr and Mrs D. Mason, and a son of Mrs Gregor. The full choir was present, and the church well filled. The subject of the evening's discourse was "The importance of Baptism."

Wed In Jackson

Michael Lash, a native of Lukenburg, Germany, and Miss Lillie Pearl Chinn, a native of California, were united in marriage at St. Augustine's Episcopal church in Jackson, on Wednesday evening by the Rev. Thos Shea.
Miss Chinn is the second daughter of Mr and Mrs John Chinn, who reside at 34 Main street, Jackson. She is very popular and strikingly pretty.
Lash has been employed at the Kennedy mine for about three years as skiptender, and is also a whole souled and genial man. The couple have a furnished home on the Mason tract, where they will make their future home.
Phillip Nelson Chinn and Miss Jessie Chinn acted as witnesses at the ceremony.

JACKSON CITY ITEMS

Local Happenings About Amador's County Seat

Mr and Mrs Dudley Laughton returned home, after spending several weeks in San Francisco and other places.
George Mattley arrived home from Alaska last Sunday, after an absence of two years teaming in the north land. We understand he will take charge of the Aqueduct hotel.

Mr and Mrs Cornyn and daughter Evelyn of San Francisco, who have been visiting relatives in this city, returned to their home Thursday.

The Ledger acknowledges the receipts of some large Indian skin peaches that were raised by M. C. McLaughlin, on his ranch about three miles above Volcano. The peaches were elegant specimens of that particular variety, both in flavor and size.

Dr. A. M. Gall and wife were called to Livermore last week to see Mrs Herriek—a sister of Mrs Gall—who is under treatment at a private sanitarium here for nervous prostration. They returned Sunday evening.

You must get registered on or before the 28th September. Citizens failing to register on or before that date will lose their votes at the coming election.

Mr and Mrs Fortner jr., were presented with a baby girl last week. Dr. Endicott reports the native daughter to be a most charming little miss.

Blas Roncevic, who has been under the care of Dr. Endicott for the last week on account of kidney trouble, is able to be around again.

New Paint Shop

Harry Cobb has opened a carriage paint shop opposite the National hotel in the building recently occupied as an auto garage. Several orders have been received, and it can be safely said he is one of the finest carriage finishers in the foothills.

Millinery Opening

Miss Mary L. Prosser, of the millinery store, 85 Main street, will have her fall and winter grand opening tomorrow and respectfully invites the general public to call and inspect her large assortment of latest style hats, trimmed in velvet, ribbon and feathers.

Alpine Rushing Work

The Alpine mine located at Plymouth is forging ahead rapidly in the way of putting the mine in working order. A blacksmith shop, 24 by 30 feet has been erected, and a large transformer house also installed. The 110 horsepower electric hoisting engine is on the ground ready to be set up. Several new one-ton skips are also on the ground ready for use. The north and south shafts have been retimbered to the water's edge, and as soon as the water is drained from the mine, the work of repairing both shafts will be speedily pushed ahead. The south shaft is 700 feet deep, and the north shaft 300 feet, both shafts connect on the 300 foot level. A large pump has been shipped and will be erected this week, and immediately put to work in clearing the mine of water. The gallows frame on the north shaft will be about 30 feet high, and that on the South shaft about 50 feet.

Excellent Program

The following band program will be rendered Sunday evening on the front porch of the Tailor building on Main street, Sunday next at 7:30 p. m.

1. "Minstrel King," March, Joe Norton
2. "The Two Zephers," Cor. & Trum. Duo., W. H. Thomas
3. "Past and Present," Ov., Dalbey
4. "Kiss of Spring," Waltz, Walter Rolfe
5. "By the Light of Silvery Moon," Barn Dance, Edwards & Smith
6. "Summer Breezes," Serenade, Mackie Beyer
7. "Southern Plantation Songs," L. Contorno
8. "Will O' the Wisp," March, W. Paris Chambers

Republican Ticket

We take this opportunity of giving a brief sketch of the candidates on the republican side who are asking the suffrages of the voters. We can truly say that the party never presented to the voters such a list of candidates as in this campaign. There is not a weak or vulnerable spot in the ticket. Every aspirant is physically, intellectually, morally and by training fully equipped for the duties of the office to which he aspires. Every republican voter can cast his ballot for every candidate on his ticket with the utmost confidence that the county's business will be faithfully attended to in the event of their election.

Judge Fred V. Wood

Present incumbent and republican candidate for judge of the superior court, has been a resident of Amador county for nearly two years. He was appointed by governor Gillett to fill the vacancy on the superior bench caused by the death of Judge R. C. Rust. He came among us a stranger to our citizens, but by his ability and fairness as a judge, and his affable and genial ways toward all, he has gained the esteem of the people generally, irrespective of partisanship. He is a native of Wisconsin, 40 years of age. He has been a resident of California for about 20 years. For six years he was police judge of the city of Oakland, a position which he filled so satisfactorily that the last term he served he was elected as an independent candidate, winning by a big margin over the regular party nominees. One of his first acts upon his appointment to preside over the superior court of Amador, was to become identified with the county as a permanent resident by the purchase of a home on Broadway—the residence of the late Judge Rust—for himself and family, which consists of wife and one son. He is recognized as one of the ablest and most conscientious judges in the state, and this is evidenced by the frequent calls to preside in cases in outside counties. That he will be retained in the position he has filled so well, and that too by a heavy majority, is beyond question.

W. G. Snyder

The nominee for district attorney, is one of the rising lawyers of Amador county. He is a native of California, 32 years of age. He has been practicing his profession in Jackson for the past five years, and is steadily gaining standing as one of the ablest and most reliable attorneys in the county. The district attorney's office is second to none in importance in the administration of county affairs. It requires a man of sound judgment, of mental poise under all circumstances; one whose sense of right and duty is not subject to the influence of partisanship, prejudice or passion; one whose respect for law rises above all personal considerations. The most deplorable results are bound to follow where the legal adviser, whether from wilfulness or lack of discernment, is weak in any respect for this office. In Mr Snyder the county will have a man who will hew to the line; keeping ever in view the fundamental principle of equal rights for all, special favors for none.

Without any disparagement to the opposing candidate, we believe the people are alive to the situation, and will elect W. G. Snyder to look after the legal business of the county for the next four years.

John S. Davis

Candidate for sheriff and tax collector is a native of Amador county, 38 years old. He is a blacksmith by trade and has conducted the smithery at Amador City for several years. His father, J. J. Davis of Shenandoah valley, is a pioneer of the northern part of the county, and was one of the organizers of the republican party in Amador county in the days preceding the election of Lincoln. He is in every way fitted for the duties of sheriff; of strong physique, robust health, and firmness in the right. He has commanded the esteem of all in the communities in which he has lived. At the earnest request of the citizens of Amador City, he was appointed a deputy sheriff by the present sheriff at the outset of the labor agitation over the interpretation of the eight hour law. He was selected as the man for the emergency, to maintain order. By his firmness and determination the crisis was tided over without the least disturbance. He has never been of the office, seeking class, but

SUPERVISORS SCOFF PRESS

Remit Back Taxes and Ridicule Ledger's Objections

GREGORY ON WARPATH

Without Any Provocation the Sheriff Attempts to Bulldoze Reporter

"The supervisors of Amador county are not a band of highbinders or crooks" was the declaration made by Lawrence Burke, chairman of the board, at the meeting last Monday.

The assertion was made during a heated argument in which district attorney Vicini, sheriff Gregory, Lawrence Burke, John Strohm, D. A. Fraser of the board and John Ratto, the picture show man, waged against the representative of the Amador Ledger, who objected to granting Ratto another free license for operating a moving picture show in Amador county on a plea of poverty, when as a matter of fact, it can be proven that the picture show in Sutter Creek at present nets more than fifty seven dollars per week.

The best films may be secured for $15 a set, and each set runs for three nights. In other words, Ratto clears his film expenditure on his first night's exhibit in Jackson, and then takes the films to Sutter Creek, and Amador, or Ione, and exhibits them virtually without any further expense than the rent of the building, and hiring what help he might feel like employing.

Supervisor Fraser informed the board that John Ratto was present, and desired that something be done about his future license, for operating his picture machines in the county.

The license, collectable by the county tax collector, amounts to $2.50 per exhibition. This tax had been remitted by the board of supervisors on two previous occasions, and the showman was given to understand by the board, at his appearance before that body in November of 1909, that he need not trouble himself any further about a license, as it was understood among themselves, meaning the board members, that for certain reason they would exempt him from all license tax. This was a private understanding which Fraser and Burke confessed existed at the last meeting, at which Ratto attended, and requested his free license. To be sure this understanding had no business on the minutes and was not entered.

Sheriff Gregory, was also informed of the understanding which existed between the board of supervisors and Ratto, and did not ask a contribution in the shape of a license for the support of the government. The exemption worked smoothly until the Ledger discovered from the discarded and smashed up ordinance that the showman owed the county somewhere in the neighborhood of $500 for licenses, not covered by the exemption act, which Gregory, as official tax collector, failed to collect.

Ratto arose and confusingly tried to plead his case, explaining that owing to the understanding which he and the board had last November, he felt free from any back licenses which the Ledger claimed he owed the county.

After a hearty scornful laugh over the $500 debt due the county, the chairman asked the district attorney what action they were to take in the matter.

Leaning back in his chair, the attorney asked Ratto if he would be able to give his show in Sutter Creek, and clear enough money to pay expenses.

"No," said Ratto, "I could not, I have expenses that are very heavy, as any showman knows, who is in the business."

"Well," continued the legal adviser, "Then you would be compelled to close up your show in Sutter Creek, if you did not run your Jackson show in conjunction with it."

"Yes sir," answered Ratto. Then forgetting his poverty plea, Ratto began railing Stinson, of the Amador Record, for criticisms given his poor exhibitions at Sutter Creek. "Why I shoved $100 under his nose, and told him I'd bet him any amount he never saw better pictures."

Terrible Self-Indictment

In the discussion on the Ratto license delinquency before the supervisors last Monday, it was brought out as a reason why Ratto should be let off free, that while the minutes of the supervisors showed that his free permit was for six months, still it was privately understood that the permit was for an indefinite period—that, in fact, Ratto was not to pay from that date anyway. This secret understanding was admitted by two of the supervisors, by Ratto and the tax collector. It was pleaded as justification for non-payment and non-collection, and trotted out gleefully as clinching the whole business. And it was a clincher truly, but in a far different sense from that intended. Probably not one of the parties to the contract realized the tremendous force of the self-accusation. To our mind this admission is the worst feature of the whole dirty, disgraceful business. The only meaning we can attach to it is that the supervisors were deliberately hoodwinking their employers—the people—whose business they were entrusted with. One thing was spread upon the minutes, and a very different thing was clandestinely entered into with the parties concerned. The inference is that their own approved and signed minutes are not to be accepted as a full and correct statement of their proceedings. Amazing proposition. Citizens of Amador, think of this, and grasp its full import if you can, for we frankly admit that we cannot. For pity sake, how many more of such private, secret understandings are outstanding that we wot not of, to be lined up against the official record. But the record evidence must prevail. Is it surprising that chairman Burke should protest: "This board is not a band of highbinders or crooks." There are many other points in this wild session to be noticed, but we must withhold comment until some other time.

How the People Feel.

The Ledger is receiving complimentary notices all around on the license muddle. One writer says:

"I guess they are all up against it now that your paper has made the question public. There must be something rotten in Denmark. I am proud of the stand your paper has taken. When I hear people trying to down the press, I am up in arms against them, and especially when the editor is doing all in his power to do the county good. Keep up the fight, Mr Editor. Public opinion is with you, heart and soul. It is outrageous that one should be made to pay license and another in the same business go free."

We may say that the district attorney was waited upon this week, and requested to take steps for the recovery of the back license money, and the stoppage of favoritism. He said he would look into the law, and see what could be done. His decision is looked for daily.

Of course the matter must be pressed to its final determination by the courts if necessary.—Editor.

Johnson Will

Speak in Jackson

Mr Ellis, the advance agent of Hiram Johnson, was in Jackson, arranging with the local republican committeemen for the Johnson meetings in this county next week. An effort was made to have the republican candidate for governor have a night meeting in Jackson, but it was without avail, as the program had already been arranged, and no changes in dates could be made. The governor's party will consist of seven or eight persons, including newspaper correspondents, in two autos. They will make the trip from Placerville to Angels Camp in one day, with brief stops at each town on the route, the distinguished candidate saying a few words at each place. At Jackson he will stay for two hours, taking dinner here, and also making an extended address of half an hour or more. Everybody should make an effort to hear his speech here. He is one of the best orators California has produced, and moreover he is in dead earnest in the policies of state reforms which he advocates.

WM. MATTLEY FOUND DEAD

Team Ran Away Killing Driver When Wagon Turned Over

As Nelson Bastian and George L. Thomas were driving a band of cattle down the old road leading from Jackson to Stony creek and Lancha Plana, about a mile out of town they came across an overturned wagon, with two horses attached and underneath the front left wheel was the dead body of a man. Bastian was riding ahead, and noticing the overturned wagon in the distance, he rode hurriedly through the cattle to ascertain what was the matter. The spot was opposite the dwelling known as the old Fritz place at the forks of the roads leading toward Stony creek on the left and toward the Ione road on the right. Realizing what had happened, Bastian rode back to Mr Thomas, some distance in the rear, and told him of the affair. The two repaired to the scene, and attempted to release the body of the man from the wagon. The weight was too much for their united strength, the wagon being a heavy one such as is used for hauling wood, etc. So one of them hastened to this city, to inform the authorities and get assistance. The hub of the wheel rested upon the temple. The body was still warm, showing that death had taken place but a short time before. It was about fifteen minutes past four when the discovery was made. Although the victim was well known to both parties, they were unable to identify him as he lay under the wheel, and various rumors were in circulation as to the identity of the victim when the news was brought to Jackson. It was known that Oscar Myers, A. Fredricks, and G. Court-right, had been in town that day and each of them were mentioned as the probable victim.

The sheriff and district attorney went out to the spot as soon as word reached them. Others had also been attracted thither before their arrival. The body was released, and it was found to be William Mattley, oldest son of Dave Mattley, of this city. He had been to the blacksmith shop at Martell's to have his wagon fixed. He was driving two horses, one of them being a colt. He was returning homeward, his residence being near Stony creek. How the accident occurred no one will know. It is evident from an examination of the roadway and tracks, that a runaway occurred. The wagon struck a large stump that stood in front of the Fritz fence, and this was no doubt the cause of the capsize. The overturned wagon was some yards ahead of this stump. The momentum of the team was perhaps checked by the collision. The wagon turned over to the left. How the driver, whose seat was on the right side, came to fall under the front wheel on the left side is hard to explain. Maybe he was pitched forward on the horses, and then fell in front of the wheel, as the wagon was going over. The team is supposed to have come to a standstill immediately upon the capsize.

The body was brought to Jackson as soon as possible, and coroner Potter notified. He came over from Plymouth the same evening, and summoned a jury, consisting of the following: W. L. Fortner W. M. Penry jr., W. J. Leavy, Thos. Lemm, M. H. Fortner, C. M. Meek, Lee Wilson, C. Giovannoni. The inquest was held Tuesday morning, and the jury, after hearing the testimony, brought in a verdict that the deceased came to his death by his wagon being overturned on top of him, caused by the team running away.

Deceased was 49 years of age, a native of California, and a member of the N. S. G. W. Besides his parents, and five brothers, he leaves two children, both living outside the county, and both of whom were present at the funeral. The funeral was conducted Wednesday, under the auspices of the local parlor of Native Sons, Rev. Shea officiating, interment in the city cemetery.

Heir to Bole Estate

Robert C. Bole, who is aspirant for judge of the superior court bench, of Amador county on the democratic ticket, was presented by his wife with a Robert junior, that tipped the scales to 10 pounds yesterday morning. Dr. Endicott was called in to look the new voter over, and pronounced him as fine a native son as ever arrived in Jackson.

TAXPAYERS TAKE NOTICE,

It becomes our duty to call the attention of the people of Amador county to the disgraceful, illegal and absolutely revolutionary character of the proceedings before the board of supervisors this weeks. We deem it necessary to report not only the official minutes, but also the heated discussion, or rather wrangle, which enlivened the meeting, participated in by members of the board, the district attorney and sheriff and tax collector. We take no pleasure in parading such disgusting talk in the columns of the Ledger, and we do so for the sole purpose of enlightening the public concerning the drift of events, and the high-handed and abusive tactics resorted to by these swelled-up servants of the people when any one has the courage to protest against their illegal action in trying to build up a system of discrimination and favoritism in the collection of revenue. Nothing approaching the sence enacted last Monday before the supervisors in its utter abandonment of dignity and decorum becoming the deliberations of a quasi-legislative body and the open defiance of law involving the sacrifice of public interests, has ever been witnessed in the history of Amador county.

A few months back the supervisors squared up an account of about $1200 for the services of a so-called expert in going over the books of county officials for a period of four years. It was supposed to fall within his province to unearth discrepancies in the collection of revenue such as that herein treated upon. His report shows that he was not looking for big game of that kind. The Ledger man has for some time indulged a suspicion that there was something amiss in the license business, based in a measure upon braggadocio statements made on the street, and took the trouble to interview the records on the subject. At the first rattle of the box he was brought face to face with the fact that John Ratto, who not only aspires to, but has actually enjoyed a monopoly of the moving picture business in Amador county for the past two years, had contributed the princely sum of $7.50 toward the support of the county government during the entire period. This would pay for three performances. The balance of the time was covered by free permits granted by the supervisors, but for about one year he had conducted his outside shows without either a free permit or the payment of a license tax. The sum due the county treasury from him was figured at over $500. Including the periods embraced by the free permits, (which we do not hesitate to say were granted without authority of law) the sum lost to Amador county from the moving picture source alone will aggregate in the neighborhood of $1000.

The publication of the details in our article last week created a sensation in officialdom. The facts therein stated are not disputed—they are admitted to be substantially correct. The board of supervisors met last Monday to fix the tax levy for current year, and the opportunity was seized to wiggle out of this license dilemma by the ex-post-facto route if possible. That all concerned were excited beyond measure and in no mood to act deliberately upon such propositions, is evidenced by what was said and what was done. Suffice it to say, the board, as far it was able, wiped out the back indebtedness of Ratto, and gave him a free ticket for the future. It is needless to say that in so doing the board transcended its authority. Ratto is just as liable to-day for back dues and future licenses as he was before the board met. Such issues are not be decided by supervisors arrogating to themselves powers that are confided to courts and juries. It is a monstrous proposition that local ordinances can be made the instruments of discrimination and persecution, in building one man up in business and tearing another man down. Constitutional rights of sovereign citizens are not to be trampled upon in that fashion. Those concerned are hugging a delusion if they imagine the people of Amador county will tamely submit to such infamous abuse of authority. If their action in this instance is to stand, the supervisors can use the club furnished by the license ordinance to boost or crush men in other lines of business, for any trumped-up reason or for no reason at all. Indeed, this phase of the question has already developed. At the stormy session this week an application was made (by the tax collector, mark you) for the remission of a delinquent liquor license and a complimentary ticket to cover the future. It is in order now for every license payer outside of Jackson to march up to the supervisors' bargain counter and apply for a free pass through the tax-collector's office. The matter has been put up to the district attorney to enforce the law against license shirkers, and thereby relieve other taxpayers from shouldering their burdens.

Alloys That Crumble—How Radioactivity Is Measured—An Alloy for Cutlery—Another Plastic Material—Nickel Lithographic “Stones”—Plants as Living Pumps—A Vacuum Furnace—An Electric Eraser—Milk Celluloid

The liability of certain iron-aluminum alloys to fall to pieces spontaneously was made known nearly twenty years ago by Roberts-Austen, and since then the same effect has been noticed with cobalt, nickel, antimony, molybdenum manganese and even with zinc. It cannot be attributed to oxidation nor to silica. In a late paper to the London Faraday Society, it was stated that the disintegration follows the alloy's marked expansion, which on slowly cooling in a crucible may continue for days and even months. Chilling seems to arrest disintegration, as samples of the same alloy that had been cast in iron molds were perfectly sound years afterwards. Many aluminum alloys have shown the property, and reasons have been found for believing that aluminum exists in two allotropic conditions. Very pure aluminum has shown want of cohesion when near the melting point, making it appear that one form must be very weak and quite useless. An interesting problem remains for the metallurgists and they are expected to show how the alloys can be made safe.

Radioactivity, which has appeared in so many substances, is measured by comparing the time taken by the emanation in discharging a charged electrometer with the time of discharge by a standard radioactive substance. Black oxide of uranium is the standard material. This is so spread on a disk of 50 square centimeters that the radiation per square centimeter corresponds to that of a centigram of oxide, and on another disk 50 centigrams of the substance under test are spread. Then the time of the normal discharge of the electrometer is noted, then the time with each disk in turn under the needle—the results giving the radioactive value by a formula.

The cobalt-chromium alloy of Edwood Haynes, Indiana metallurgist, is claimed to rival the finest steel in hardness and durability, and its resistance to corrosion specially fits it for cutlery, surgical instruments, and various tools.

The new rubber substitute of Dr. F. G. Weichmann, called “protal,” is prepared by adding an animal albumen, with a suitable solvent to a vegetable-albumen base, which is supplied in a specially adapted form by the seeds of certain palms. Protal is perfectly plastic at first, soon acquiring the hardness of stone. When first produced, it can be pressed into molds or otherwise shaped while cold, and when made into dry powder it can be pressed or molded on heating. It can be loaded with any of the materials commonly used with rubber. Dr. Weichmann has used it with more than eighty different substances, including asbestos, shellac, linseed oil, cork flour, pigments, rubber and bakelite, and has produced compounds having a wide range of properties, and claimed to be adapted to the many purposes for which rubber is employed. An advantage claimed for these compounds over those of rubber is that they are not liable to deterioration from oxidation. The great variety of objects for which these products are recommended include buttons, chessmen, door-knobs, picture frames, phonograph records, spools, telephone receivers, battery jars, gun-stocks, trays, tiles, grinding wheels, electric insulators, automobile tires, door-mats, soles, weather-strips, etc.

The fine-grained slaty limestone used in lithographic printing is expensive and cumbersome, and attempts have been made to use aluminum and other materials in its place. The latest substitute is a plate of nickel. A sheet of brass or other metal is scoured so as to take ink and is then coated with graphite and made to serve as the base of a deposit of nickel by the electrolytic process. The nickel is stripped off after being given a blacking of zinc. The face of the plate is in a suitable condition for printing, and is claimed to make an effective lithographic stone.

The old problem of the rise of sap in trees has been solved by E. Reinert, a Dutch botanist, who has shown in a novel manner that the living wood acts as a pump. Pressure-meters placed at different heights in the living trunk indicated independent and irregular variations, but when the trunk was killed the pressure differences became simply such as would be expected in a glass tube.

The electric vacuum furnace of O. Ruff, a German, consists of a tube of retort carbon with walls about a twentieth of an inch thick and opposite view holes near the center. The ends have close-fitting jackets of retort carbon, coppered on their outer ends, where they are connected to water-cooled iron blocks receiving the current. A non-conducting jacket encloses the whole, and is contained in a water-cooled brass case having two quartz-glass view-holes for visual and pyrometric observations, and with air-pump connections to exhaust the air. With varying currents temperatures were produced ranging from $1000 deg. to 2700 deg. C., greater heat being impracticable on account of the rapid volatilization of the carbon. Among the uses to which the furnace has been put is that of measuring melting points. Through the quartz windows the sinking of the metals as it begins to fuse and be seen, and it has been shown that platinum melts at about 1755 deg.; commercial iridium, 2225 deg.; molybdenum, 2110 deg.; pure tungsten, 2575 deg.; and kaolin, 1915 deg. In an atmosphere of nitrogen, alumina melted at 2065 deg., and lime at 2035 deg., magnesia remaining unmelted at 2400 deg.

To ensure neat correction of ink lines on tracing cloth, an electrically driven eraser has been devised for draughtsmen. The flexible shaft of a small motor carries at its outer end a circular eraser, and as this is rotated it operates lightly and rapidly, effectively removing all undersired lines. Clogging with particles of ink and paper is avoided by the use of a cleaning rubber, which bears lightly against the erasing rubber.

The milk collars now much used by tradesmen and artisans in Paris are made from a celluloid from goats milk, and are preferred to ordinary celluloid on account of their duller finish. The material is prepared by separating the whey of the milk from the curds, then subjecting to great pressure. This celluloid is already quite extensively made, being employed for collar buttons, billiard balls, knife-handles, combs, and other purposes.

An Unworked Field For Immigration.

The El Dorado Republican says: While the board of trade is sending literature and advertisements broadcast over the country, we believe that it is making a mistake in not concentrating its efforts upon the population of the southern part of our own state. San Diego, Imperial, Riverside, Los Angeles and Orange counties contain thousands of industrious people today who are not entirely satisfied. These people as a rule own property which they can sell or dispose of to good advantage, or have ready means available for investment. Some of them have tired of the dry and excessively warm climate of that section, and are thinking seriously of making a change of location. They are as a rule successful small farmers and fruit growers, with the frugal and thrifty habits of the New Englanders, and are good citizens. We believe that if the board of trade would concentrate its efforts in calling the attention of people in Southern California to the opportunities offered in El Dorado county from now until the first of the year, many families would be induced to come here to settle. Here is a letter to the secretary of the local board of trade from a Riverside county man, which goes to show that our opinion in this matter at least has some tangible foundation: Riverside, Sept. 4—I have just received a pamphlet regarding El Dorado county, and am very much impressed with what I read of your county, and wish further information concerning it. What I wish to know is the cost of unimproved lands, and if any can be secured along running streams. Have spent twenty-five years in Southern California, and desire to get out of this hot desert country to a better one. Any information you will forward to me will be greatly appreciated.—F. S. Bollinger, R. F. D. No. 2.

Basis of Confidence
The fact that so many prominent and distinguished business men are patrons of this bank is not in itself perhaps a sufficient reason for your becoming a patron of it until you have investigated and approved the merits of our claims to your confidence, but it is an item of sufficient importance to justify you in making an examination of our claims to merit. The basis of successful banking is capable

PINE GROVE

Mrs Phoebe Rinehart, after a lingering illness, passed away September 19th at the age of 85 years. The funeral services were held in the M. E. church at Pine Grove, Rev. Shea, rector of the Episcopal church of Jackson officiating. She leaves to mourn her loss two sons, Robert and Otis Rinehart, and a daughter, Mrs L. Hanson of Berkeley, also three grandchildren. The bereaved family, have the sympathy of the entire community in their late bereavement.

Dearest mother, thou hast left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
And in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

Indian Queen Dies.

Indian Mary, a well-known character among the Indians of this section, and looked upon as queen of the Diggers, died at the Indian reservation on Saturday evening last, after an illness of ten days. She was put down as 73 years of age, although her exact age is involved in uncertainty. She has been a familiar figure in these parts since the advent of the white man, and was regarded by her people as an oracle on all disputable questions. For some years she has been a ward of the government at the Indian reservation three miles northeast of Jackson. To distinguish her from others the surname of Clark was added to "Mary." She was buried on Monday in the Indian burial place on the Caminetti ranch with all native honors—incantations and mournful cries—befitting her high station. Diggers gathered from far and near, over 30 attending the last sad rites.

BOARD FIXES TAX RATES

Sheriff Gets Free Liquor License for His Friend

The board of supervisors met Monday last, pursuant to adjournment, for the purpose of fixing the tax rate for the current year, and the transaction of such other business as might come before the meeting. All the members were present.

For the year 1910 the board established the number of miles of railroad in the county of Amador at eight miles, and the amount for which the Southern Pacific shall be assessed for the same on its franchises, roadbeds, rails and rolling stock was fixed at $197,730.

The following communication from the state board of equalization was read:

Office of the State Board of Equalization,
Sacramento Cal., Aug. 1, 1910.

To the board of supervisors of Amador county.—

The state board of equalization on the 1st day of August, 1910, assessed for the year 1910 the Southern Pacific R. R. Co. for its franchises, roadbeds, rail and rolling stock in the state of California in the aggregate sum of $60,584,380. The entire length of main track of railway of said company in said state is 2451.21 miles. The length of the main track in the county of Amador is eight. The assessed value per mile of said railway, as fixed by a pro rata distribution per mile of the assessed value of the whole franchise, roadway, roadbed, rails and rolling stock of such railway within this state $24,716.11.

The apportionment of the assessment of said franchise, etc., for Amador county is $197,730.

A. Brown, chairman board of equalization; T. M. Eby, secretary.

Office of the state board of equalization, Sacramento, Sept. 6, 1910.

To the board of supervisors of Amador county, Cal.—The rate of state tax fixed this day by the board of equalization as the ad valorem rate of taxation levied and to be collected upon each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of the property of the state to raise the specific amount of money required to be raised for the sixty-second fiscal year in 32 cents and 3 mills, and the said rate was fixed and apportioned as follows:

|---------------------------|------------|
| General fund | 15.9 cents |
| School fund | 14.2 " |
| State high school | 1.6 " |
| Interest and sinking fund | 0.6 " |

Total rate of state tax - 32.2 "

And the board also this day, in pursuance of law, declared the levy of an ad valorem tax of three cents upon each one hundred dollars of value of the taxable property of the state for the support of the University of the state of California, making a total of 35 cents and three mills. You are therefore as provided by section of the political code requested on the third Monday of September to levy the said rate of state taxation upon the taxable property in the county.

A. Brown, Chairman.

T. M. Eby, Secretary.

The following communications were also read:

Jackson, Cal., Aug. 2, 1910.

It becomes my duty to report to you that the minimum amount of county money to be raised for the ensuing school year in order to maintain the primary and grammar schools of the county is $15,113. Respectfully yours,
W. H. Greenhalgh, Superintendent.

Jackson, Cal., Aug. 18, 1910

Gentlemen—It becomes my duty to report to you that the number of pupils attending the Ione union high school from the outside districts during last term is 10½, and the net cost of educating each pupil is $34.43. Therefore it is necessary for you to raise for the ensuing term $361.56 by special tax on the property outside of the Ione union high school.

W. H. Greenhalgh.

Ione, Cal., July 23, 1910.

We the undersigned board of trustees of the Ione union high school, in accordance with the provisions of section 1756 of the school law, do hereby submit the following as our estimate of the amount of money necessary to meet the expense of the said Ione union high school for the current year. We submit a complete statement showing the amount on hand, amount available for which tax need not be levied, the balance being the amount required. We therefore petition your honorable body to levy upon the taxable property of the Ione union high school district a district tax in sufficient amount to insure us the sum of $2211.39. We estimate the rate at 24 cents on the $100. John Jones, G. J. Yager, E. W. Perkins, Executive board.

It was moved and carried by the unanimous vote that there be levied to be Amador Citizen's New Invention.

We copy the following notice of an invention of Arthur Mills, who passed the most of his life in the vicinity of Aukum, in El Dorado county, but who was principally identified with this county. He moved to Sacramento and there met with an accident which will probably cripple him for life. The Ledger hopes that his invention will bring him ample financial reward.

One exhibit which was shown by the automobile department, because there was no other place for it to go, was a Sacramento invention known as the automatic wagon. This vehicle is the invention of Arthur Mills of this city, and is the first radical change made in the farm wagon in forty years. It has no kingbolt, no reach, nor has it a "fifth wheel," yet it rides so easy that there is not an automobile that can compare with it in excellence. It has received a special first prize and is looked upon as something which will revolutionize the use of the farm wagon. It is self-equalizing and the heavy box rides as easy as a Pullman car over ruts and ridges in the road. Frank Newbert is at the head of the company manufacturing the new wagon, and Sacramento will now have an industry which will bring it to the notice of the world as has never before been done.

James Podesta returned to Jackson last week, after a delightful visit with relatives in San Francisco.

Don't waste your money buying plasters when you can get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment for twenty-five cents. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment is superior to any plaster for lame back, pains in the side and chest, and much cheaper. Sold by all dealers.

McGary has a large line of fine dress goods to select from.

A new concrete porch is being erected at the approach of St. Augustine's church. The porch had only recently been repaired, but the work was not what the church officials deemed satisfactory and the new porch was decided upon.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhea remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhea, dysentery or bowel complaint. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.

My goodness, McGary's store is just loaded down with nice goods.

Amiel Sabatini and wife, who reside on Broadway, were visited by doctors Stork and Gail on Monday last, the former brought a large boy to the Sabatini home, and the latter inspected the native son, and pronounced him fine.

Albert Hambric and wife had a surprise given them on Tuesday last. A boy was ordered, and when Dr. Stork arrived, he carried a girl instead. Dr. Gail was consulted in the matter, and urged the household to keep the girl, as Ursula parlor was in need of more members.

Buried at Pine Grove

Mrs Phoebe Rinehart, an aged and greatly respected citizen of Pine Grove, was laid to her final rest on Wednesday last, from the Pine Grove church, interment being made in the village cemetery.

Rev. Shea of St. Augustine's Episcopal church, Jackson, officiated at the services, which were very impressive and largely attended, the church being crowded to the doors. Mrs Rinehart was 85 years old and is survived by three children, two sons and one daughter, all of whom attended the funeral.

Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhea remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. It cures griping, diarrhoea, dysentery, and should be taken at the first unnatural looseness of the bowels. It is equally valuable for children and adults. It always cures. Sold by all dealers.

Lost Bet

Lawrence Molino, who has been entertaining large ideas as to his ability as a marathon hero, posted $30 with several friends that he could travel afoot from the gate of the ranch at his home, to the National hotel in Jackson, 6 miles distance, in 45 minutes. The rumer attempted to make good his bet on Wednesday evening, when he started the race. He was accompanied by Willard Blakely, who traveled on horseback as official timekeeper. The 45 minute time limit expired and he reached the county hospital, and the race was declared lost.

the republicans of the county, in looking over the field, concluded that he was the man above all others to make the race for the position, and after earnest solicitation he decided to accept the responsibility. It is a striking instance of the place seeking the man, and therein offers a marked contrast to the case of the man after the office, so signally illustrated in the opposing ticket. He is not a man of the braggadocio kind, a man of performance rather than empty promises. He carries the impression of a strong and well balanced character behind a quiet and unostentatious demeanor. Every voter should make it a point to get acquainted with him during this campaign.

Not a single reason can be given why any republican should withhold his active and earnest support from John S. Davis.

F. B. Lemoine

Is the party nominee for treasurer. He is well known to the people of this county of which he is a native. He is 48 years old, and also a blacksmith by trade, being at present employed at the Preston school of industry in Ione. He was a supervisor representing district five for several years, and his close attention to the duties of that office is admitted by all. Thereafter he was appointed superintendent of the Amador county hospital, and filled that office for six years. The administration of that institution under his supervision, we are safe in saying, was the best the county has ever known, both from the standpoint of the inmates and the financial interests of the county. He now appeals to the voters as a candidate for treasurer. He is honest, trustworthy, and capable, and would conduct that office with the same fidelity and attention that has marked his official actions in the past.

We are compelled to hold over the rest of this article until next week.

New Musical Outfit

Ernest Tam, a son of Wm. Tam of Jackson, is proving himself quite a marvel, considering his age on the trap drum. The young musician has just received a fine outfit of musical goods, consisting of a set of bard and orchestra bells, and many other useful traps belonging to the drummer's outfit from Leedy Mfg. Co, Indianapolis. Ernest plays in both band and orchestra, and is quite and adept in his line.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warnings that No Jackson Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's kidney pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident.

J. E. Wood, sewing machine dealer 1223 E. Weber Ave., Stockton, Cal., says: "Doan's kidney pills helped me greatly and I am glad to make public acknowledgment of the fact. I was bothered by a lame back and I had pains in my kidneys. I also had trouble from a distressing kidney weakness. Doan's kidney pills relieved my pains and aches and corrected the fault with my kidneys. My experience with this remedy has given me convincing proof that it acts promptly and brings permanent relief."

Marks and Brands Must be Destroyed

For many years the United States internal revenue laws have required that immediately upon emptying of any stamped package of distilled liquor the marks, stamps and brands must be at once destroyed, and severe penalties are provided, for failure to comply with the law. Many liquor dealers have considered it sufficient to destroy the stamp and have neglected to destroy the marks and brands. Attention has been called to the law by the authorities in Washington and instructions have been given to rigidly enforce the regulations.

When a package is emptied every mark, brand and stamp should be removed at once.

could well afford to pay a license.

Sheriff Gregory was on his feet in an instant, and turning to the Ledger's reporter, he howled out, "you d— little butt-in, its none of your business what these supervisors do."

When the sheriff was informed that the taxpayers interests were being protected, his wrath knew no bounds, and he shouted, "you don't pay taxes, what in the h— do you care?"

The reporter not wishing to be considered in the wrong light of the affair, declared that he did some day expect to be a taxpayer in California, and that he carried at the present time tax receipts paid by him in Philadelphia for the year 1909.

"It'll be a d— long time," he roared, "before you pay taxes in this county."

Then turning to the board, he confessed that he had been rather negligent in his duties, but said that he had received no notification of the tax being due, until through the columns of the Ledger he was so informed.

The reporter replied that it was the tax collector's business to report such cases himself, that when a newspaper is compelled to expose such actions, it has the privilege of selecting its own time to do it.

Again facing the reporter he shouted in his excited condition, "you're a d— little pissant,"

Gregory then asked the board if he was to understand that he was not to collect a license from any 10 cent picture show.

The district attorney answering for the board, said, "we will charge all outsiders who come into the county the regular rate."

The board then informed Gregory to start immediately collecting from Richards at Sutter Creek, whereupon the sheriff pulled his hat down over his ears, bit his lips and left the room.

The press representative retained his presence of mind to thank the sheriff for his compliments, very much regretting that the chairman of the board was content to sit throughout the entire affair without so much as calling the sheriff to order.

Instead of calling for order, Burke chipped in, and informed the reporter that he would not waste time arguing the matter with him, and that he did not care a snap what Webb or the Ledger said about him. He said he knew that the people did not want them to charge Ratto a license, and therefore he for one wished to see him go license free.

The district attorney, then advised the board to make a motion, revoking the back license and grant Ratto a continuous free license until further orders of the board.

Supervisor Fraser then said, I make a motion to revoke back license against Ratto, and grant him a continuous license until further order of the board.

Supervisor Strohm said, "vell, I second dot." Burke shouted, and so ordered, forgetting for the time to ask for the negative vote, and correcting his own mistake immediately. The sentiment of the board was so strong that no reasonable argument could have had effect at that time. Burke realizing that he has no opponent, and the remainder of the board apparently unconcerned as to how the vote was carried.

Now, said the district attorney, that ends that $500 proposition that the Ledger shouted about.

"Yes," said Burke, "and if there is any responsibility for this action I assume all of it, this board can stand the consequence."

Ratto here thanked the board for its action, and said he hoped they did not consider him as trying to bribe them for free licenses by his treating them to cigars.

Tendered Reception

Ursula Parlor No 1, N. D. G. W. of Jackson, tendered a reception to two of its members, Mrs Stanley James and Mrs Dave Brisco on Wednesday evening last in the Odd Fellows hall.

A short, but elaborate program was arranged and well executed. Mrs Alice E. Jones spoke a few remarks, and was followed by an overture by Prof. A. Moore and Grace Sutherland. Harvey Mason rendered a song which was heartily encored.

Alice E. Jones gave a recitation that was followed with a selection by Moore's orchestra of this city. Amelia Picardo rendered a very charming song and Minnie Gardella gave a very interesting reading which concluded the program.

The entire gathering then repaired to the banquet room where delicious refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake, fruit, and punch.

The dining hall was beautifully decorated in pink and white.

Toasts were given by D. Brisco, W. Daugherty, H. Mason, Prof. Moore, E. Lucot, Mrs M. James, M. Green, L. McLaughlin, Mrs Calvin, A. McLaughlin, Mrs Gilbert and Mrs Podes ta.

A notice was posted on the Middle Bar bridge last week warning persons not to drive across the bridge, as the same was in a dangerous condition, and persons attempting to cross did so at their peril. The structure has been in need of repairs for some time. The two counties of Calaveras and Amador will join in the expense of fixing the same.

GIRL'S LOVE MAY EFFECT JURY

Sweetheart of Accused Shows Her Devotion
In Courtroom.

Dan Cupid figures prominently in the trial of Ira R. Allen, a youth of 20 years is charged with the murder of L. P. Coscia, a native of Italy, aged about 70 years, who lived alone in the hills near Mount Aukum, El Dorado county. Coscia was known to have lots of money. Allen had a sweetheart, but no money.

On the day that Coscia was supposed to have been murdered, Allen does not account for his whereabouts, but on the succeeding days he had plenty of money, and hired a rig from stables in Placerville, drove to Shenandoah valley, got Miss Gussie Thompson, his sweetheart, and for several days there were picnics and dances galore. Allen treated his friends and footed the bills.

Later a watch which had belonged to Coscia was traced to Allen and also some opera glasses, and Allen told the officers conflicting stories as to how he came to have them.

The first week of the trial is over. Daily Miss Thompson, who is barely 15, small and handsome, follows closely the proceedings of the court, and when her eyes meet those of the prisoner, who usually sits half facing her, smiles are exchanged. When there is a word that is derogatory to her love she frowns. At recess she comes and sits by Allen's side. None of this love making is lost on the jury and it is prophesied that they will never hang Allen and break the little girl's heart.

The evidence in the case is circumstantial. Coscia's body was not found for many days after he had been murdered. With some blunt instrument he was hit on the back of the head. Afterwards his pockets were rifled and his cabin was robbed. Most of his money was in banks in San Francisco, and the murderers got only about $20.

George M. Thompson, the district attorney, is prosecuting the case and C. E. Peters is for the defense. There are about 100 witnesses in the case and 80 of these are for the defendant. About the time Coscia was murdered there were a number of sheepmen in the neighborhood of Aukum. The defendant will try to prove that these are the men who made away with the old Italian. Since the murder these men have disappeared.

Miss Thompson will take the stand in defense of her lover this week. As the courthouse was burned last May, the parlors of the Presbyterian church are being used for the trial.

Mrs. Joseph Wrigglesworth testified regarding the visit that the murdered man made at her place on the day he was killed. He bought some cheese, tendering a $20 gold piece in payment, and she returned $19.57. There was no money on the body of Coscia when it was found. She also testified regarding the watch of the dead man, of his habits and general manner of life. She, who as postmistress notified Seeley, who was on the stand so long yesterday, that Coscia had had no mail delivered from May 11 to May 27. This led Seeley to discover the body of Coscia lying in a pool of blood the next day near his cabin.

H. N. Vennewitz, a neighbor, testified also. He was on the coroner's jury and told what was seen and done at the time. George Cruson was also on the coroner's jury, and following along the same line, corroborating the testimony of Vennewitz. He told of the terrible wounds of the murdered man, of the broken jaw and false teeth and of the crushed skull.

D. G. Justice, who is a neighbor of Hart, foster father of Allen, told how Allen borrowed $1.50 on April 28th of him, that he might take in the dance at Somerset. This was but a few days before the murder was committed. Allen traded what purports to have been Coscia's watch to a son of Justice, the trade being made in the witness' presence. He described the watch minutely. John Justice, his son, was on the stand. He is a lad about 18 years of age. He told the same story. The trade was the watch for a .38 caliber revolver, and was made on May 22d. On May 27th, the day Coscia's body was found, the boys traded back. Since then the watch has disappeared.

E. F. Smith, a jeweler and watchmaker, who has repaired Coscia's watch and had written the numbers of the works and case in his book, was called. He testified that the watch was brought to him while young Justice had it in his possession, and he put a crystal in it. Though there was a slight discrepancy in one of the figures, a "5" being found in one place instead of a "3," he practically identified the watch. On the dead man there was found a memorandum book, and in it both the numbers of the works and case, and these numbers agree except in one particular.

Vennewitz and Cruson both testified regarding Allen's expression when Coscia's body was found, the substance of which was something like, "Now that I am in I may as well finish." It is not known what it meant.

Ready for the Exhibits

We have received word from the managers of the September Produce Fair and Carnival to be held in Stockton September 28, 29, 30 and October 1st, that the big tents will be up and ready for the installation of exhibits by September 22nd. All intending exhibitors should write at once to George Hudson or J. A. Gorman at N. 440 E. Main St., Stockton, and reserve space. Produce exhibits of all kinds are solicited and there will be no charge for space or entry. Exhibits must be in place on or before September 27th. Valuable premiums will be given in the shape of cash prizes of $100 down to $15 and of silver trophies, cups and medals. The fair promises to be of great interest and every one who visits it will surely be pleased.

Deafness Can not be Cured
by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars or any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.
